

KOOZIE KIT

INGREDIENTS IN KIT

- Leather
- Koozie Stencil
- Box Cutter
- Plastic Gloves
- Leather die
- Piece of Towel x2
- Nail
- Brown Paper
- Oil
- Ruler
- Needle
- Elastic String x 4

INGREDIENTS FROM HOME

- Cutting Board
- Pen or fine point marker
- Scissors
- Tape
- Hammer
- News paper or some sort of paper to protect table.

STEPS

- Cut out the stencil. Cut along the outside of the black or red line.
- Trace Koozie stencil ONE THE BACK (ROUGH SIDE) of leather.
- Lay Stencil B at the bottom of your piece of leather.
- Lay the red circle and lay on top of the stencil B so the o's match up.
- Lay the A under the circle so the x's match up.
- Trace this pattern
  - Do Not Toss. You will need this again stencil A and B again.
- Cut out Koozie using box cutter ( scissors are helpful to cut round center)
  - Place the ruler along the outside of the trace line and cut along the rulers' metal edge. The whole length of the koozie

- Tape stencil A or B onto the cut-out leather koozie - You will be repeating this step on both sides.
- Lay leather stencil combo on top of cutting board. (You are going to make the holes on the side of koozie.) Use hammer and nail to punch holes.
- Punch holes threw each circle on stencil.
- Flip and repeat on other side if needed

- Put on Plastic Gloves
- Laydown protective paper. Lay brown paper on top
- Lay back (fuzzy side of leather) facing up.
- Take piece of fabric and dip into leather die.
- Rub die into a circular motion. Cover back with die. Can be laid on thick. This will soak up a lot of die. Totally normal.
- Lightly add die to all sides.
- Rub in circular motion the front (smooth side) THIN LAYER.
- Let dry between layers until desired colors. (20 min or so)
  - Keep in mind the oil will darken color a shade or two.
- Double check that you have all the sides covered. There are no little marks that didn't get died,
- After happy with color and dry apply a layer of oil. Massage in circular motion with second piece of clothes.
  - Repeat a second time if you would like - not required. Will darken color for each layer you apply.
- Ley dry Make take a couple hours.
- Fold Koozie as if you will use it.
- Take one piece of elastic cord. Tie knot and thread threw needle.
- Lace up the side of koozie. Any pattern you like. ( I did an over under pattern)
- Once laced up one side use both string to tie a knot. (Like knotting your shoes)
- Repeat on opposite side.
- You are done!!!
- Have a drink you earned it!!
